10 Lessons Learned From A Growing CIT Program

Chief Jim Blocker ∙ Meghan Taft LLP, CAADC ∙ Melinda Holliday LMSW, CAADC
I DO WHAT I WANT
| Therapists: They really want to help and make a difference. |
| Therapists: I did not like the idea of therapists getting involved in \text{...} |
| Therapists: They have done an excellent job of trying to address Police concerns while promoting better mental health resources for the community through police contact. While softer approaches are preferred, there is an understanding of officer safety. |
| Therapists: I look forward to working with them. |
| Therapists: Over time, it appears therapists understand the struggles the officers encounter on a daily basis. |
| Therapists: Very helpful and care about the change being made. |
